Quartus, b. 4 March 1848, m. Edna Elira Butler
Olive, b. 1851
Almond, b. 1863

(I believe Almond was John A. Morgan, b. February 21, 1863) CBM

Also, page 34 of Albert's genealogy, it's reported that Orin Morgan hung himself this morning, March 21, 1867. (This would be the day after his son Orin E. died).

The additional children listed for Orin and Lucretia is from information that was on a separate sheet in Fred B Morgan's copy of Albert Morgan's genealogy, and is thought to have come (possibly) from a family bible in Ethel Morgan Matson's possession. A copy of this sheet is in my copy of Albert's genealogy. Also, there is a copy of a Town of Norfolk 1870 census, showing Lucretia, Quartus, Olive and Almond all living in Norfolk--this would be three years after Orin's death. CBM

Orin is buried at Union Cemetery, Potsdam, New York.

Albert Morgan's Genealogy: (page 38)

"The following is an excerpt from a Potsdam, NY newspaper, dated 16 september, 1925.

"About one o'clock Friday, September 4th, at her home on the Norwood-Knapps Station Road, occurred the death of Mrs. A. J. Hathaway, aged 54 years. She had been a patient sufferer during a long and serious illness. Mrs. Hathaway's maiden name was Mary V. Morgan. She was born March 25, 1871, at the Morgan homestead on the Knapps Station Road where she has always lived excepting for short intervals. She was one of a family of eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. Dorson D. Morgan. Two of the sisters, Sarah and Clara are dead, and she is survived by two brothers, George Morgan of Gouverneur, Harland Morgan of Morsemere, N.J. and three sisters, Mrs. Emma Curtis of Framingham, Mass., Mrs. Cora Clark of Parlin, N.Y. and Mrs. Coleman Thompson of Chester, Vermont.On September 27, 1899, Miss Mary V. Morgan was united in marriage to Mr. Almond J. Hathaway of Norwood. To them were born two sons, Vernon J. and Ernest M. Hathaway.Mrs. Hathaway was laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery. Those from away who attended the funeral were Mrs. Emma Curtis of Framingham, Mass., Mrs. Cora Clark of Parlin, N.Y., and Mr. George Morgan of Gouverneur, N.Y. and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Morgan of Lawrenceville, N.Y."
